BULLETIN DEADLINE: Monday 12:00 PM
A Joyful Week Under Sister Sun....

This last week, all the priests of the Diocese with our two Bishops were on their yearly convocation which was held in Temecula. It was a time of prayer, study and play.

It is a hope-filled work that reminds us that those who accept his offer of salvation are set free from “sin, sorrow, inner emptiness and loneliness.”

We as priests were challenged to have a renewed energy for evangelization of this message.

There are three areas that Pope Francis draws from his namesake St. Francis of Assisi. First, the care of the poor. Pope Francis has taken on a special spirit of working with and for the poor. This is one of his strongest exhortations for the Church of Christ.

Second is to work for peace. The constant energy of the Church of Christ is to strive after peace. This is a vital message in this day and age.

Thirdly, we are called to take care of creation. The example of St. Francis of Assisi teaches us how we are all part of God’s creation. We as the Church of Christ, are to respect this creation as God intended. St. Francis of Assisi called the animals his brothers and sisters. The sun was his brother and the moon his sister. We are asked to be aware of God’s presence in all of creation.

The speakers were dynamic in their presentations of the material. We were able to get together as brothers, present from many parts of the world as our diocese is staffed by a very multi-cultural bunch of guys.

It was a good week. We left with this song in our hearts:

“Sing for joy, O heavens, and exult, O earth! Break forth O mountains, into singing! For the Lord has comforted his people, and will have compassion on his suffering ones”

This is a good song to keep in our hearts and our lives.

Peace,

Fr Louis

Answer to the Catechism Quiz for the Month of September

The question was:

In the Sacrament of Confirmation, the baptized person is “sealed with the gift of the Holy Spirit” and is strengthened for service to the Body of Christ. According to the Catechism of the Catholic Church, how many times may we receive the Sacrament of Confirmation and why?

And the answer is:

Only once. Confirmation, like Baptism, imprints a spiritual mark, or indelible character on the Christian’s soul; for this reason one can receive this Sacrament only once in one’s life. (CCC, no. 1317)

STEWARDSHIP GIVING PRAYER
Good and gracious God, we thank you for all we are and all we have. Everything is a gift from your infinite generosity. We marvel at how bountiful is your kindness. We rest in appreciation of your enduring mercy. As we explore our responsibility to be good stewards, fill us with the compassion of Jesus, your Son. Give us eyes to see the needs of those around us, in the faces of our neighbors near and far. Give us hearts that are moved by the pleas of those who cry out - on behalf of the children, the refugees, the sick and the suffering. Give us hands that are eager to share what has been entrusted to us. Give us feet to venture wherever the Spirit leads for the mission to bring your Good News to all. As we resolve to be mindful of the needs of others, we pray that You instill in us your generosity, your kindness and your mercy. Keep us focused in our mission of good stewardship. In Jesus' name we pray. Amen.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Over time, the severe form of one-chance penance collapsed under lack of enthusiasm for its burdens and its public nature. As ordinary Christians prayed for the great sinners, it must have occurred to them that they were sinners no less and they required a form of penance also. The Irish came to the rescue, never having had a public form of penance, but inventing a system called “tariff penance,” which was completely private, available to everyone, and wildly popular. After a detailed confession, priest and penitent would lie on the floor before the altar and recite a number of psalms. The priest then pronounced a judgment, a tariff, giving a task or a prayer to complete before reconciliation.

The surviving guidebooks for confessors make for hair-raising reading as the sins of which the Irish people were supposedly capable were catalogued and keyed to penances. Cattle or sheep rustling might require stripping down to sing psalms in an icy brook, for example, or adultery could be the occasion for rolling in a thicket of thorns. All of this might have stayed in Ireland had not the monks had a desire to travel, blazing across Europe with their theology and their rituals, and their sense that Christians needed strong medicine for sin and the assurance of God’s forgiveness.

NECESSARY REPETITION

Spiritual teachers tend to repeat themselves and to repeat other teachers. Maybe there really aren’t that many different truths to tell. Just a lot of slow, sleepy human beings - like us - who need to hear the basics over and over. Consider today’s readings.

People complain that God isn’t “fair” and Ezekiel answers that God is more than fair. People choose their own fates and people can change. Even evildoers can turn, do right and live. “Actions speak louder than words.” A fresh new insight? Hardly.

Paul tells the Philippians he would truly be encouraged if those who claimed to be believers would, in fact, look to others’ interests and not their own. “The proof of the pudding is in the eating.” A novel idea? I don’t think so.

In Jesus’ story of the farmer and his sons, everyone knows the one who said he wouldn’t work, but did, is way ahead of the one who said he would work, but didn’t. “Talk is cheap.” Heard that before?
